Theory of the Police. Theory of the Police.

It is the belief of the police that more light will be shed on the mystery when something is learned of Mrs. Scham's movements at the plonic of the Bayer-ischer Volksfest, at Ibert's Union Park, in Metroponitan avenue, Sunday afternoon. So far no one has come forward to account for Mrs. Scham's whereabouts from 7 to 11 o'clock Sunday night. The friends ghe accompanied to the park did not see her after 7 o'clock, and no one seeins to have seen her leave the park.

Daniel Creed, a distinguished looking man, whose black hair is edged with gray, and who, the police say, has dealt in green goods bargains for many years. was held in the Adams Street Court to-day in $5,000 ball on a charge of felonious assault. The complainant is Lieut.-Detective Vaughn, of the Central Office, who has been hunting for his elderly assailant for more than a Fear.

In the spring of 1908 Vaughn was assigned to trap a gang of green goods men who were sending ofreuiars to the West. He arranged a meeting with them in the back of a store at Lee avenue and Hayward street, Williamsburg.

After agreeing to purchase $13,000 worth of their handsome emeraid bank notes the detective drew his revolver and announced they were under arrest. He had been dealing with two men, and when he drew his gun Creed sprang sut of a closet, struck the weapon from his hand and knocked him down. Then Creed beat him over the head with the gun and covered him until he and his pais had backed out of the room. Yangih informed the Magistrate that Creed has a long record.

NEW CASE OF YELLOW FEVER WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.-Chief Surgeon Taylor, at Marianao, Cuba, today reported to the War Department that there is one new case of yellow fever at St. Nicholas, no new cases at Cienfuegos and that the conditions gen-erally are favorable.

Here is a Patient's Own Story of How He Was Cured

The Hamburg Avenue Station detectives working on the case announced to-day that they had a witness who could identify the murderer if he was expersed. The witness is described as appeared. The says that on Sunday hight or Monday site saw a man moving about in the flat carrying a lamp in his hand. She saw the shadow of the man apparently bringing his hand down several the was getting blows although she didn't kine what had in his hand. The police are not enthusiastic over this, as they believe the woman should have been able to see the stove lid with which the blows were struck if dentify him.
